AMBASSADOR NAME: _____

A-WOW YOUNG WOMEN LEADERSHIP WORLD SUMMIT

Each ambassador participating in the AWOW World Summit MUST read and sign this agreement, then return to AWOW World Summit, P.O. Box 116411 Carrollton, TX 75010 or fax to: 972.315.3524 by June 30.

Expectations

Participation in the AWOW World Summit is a unique privilege. You are expected to conduct yourself as an adult, serving as a role model to your peers, and thus showing respect for those who have supported you (community service organizations, schools, businesses, parents and host parents). Integrity, respect for the person and property of others, and a commitment to intellectual and personal growth in a diverse population are values that are fundamental to participation in the AWOW World Summit. As a participant in the Summit, you are expected to have creditable academic standing and a genuine interest in leadership and global issues. You are expected to participate fully in all scheduled activities sharing your skills and knowledge while also listening to and learning from others.

Rules

I understand that...

...To be eligible for the Summit, I must be between the ages of 16 – 25 years. (International ambassadors may be exempt from this policy; however, they cannot be over 25 years of age.) Anyone who does not fit this description will need special permission from the Executive Director to attend.

...Transportation to and from the Summit is NOT included in the Summit fee. If I drive a personal vehicle to the Summit, I agree to pay for a parking permit and to store it in a University parking lot for the duration of the Summit. I will turn my car keys over to a Summit staff- member. This vehicle will NOT be driven during the Summit.

...I am not allowed to leave the campus at any time during the Summit other than for a scheduled Summit activity. I understand that any deviation from this rule will require staff and parental permission, and will be an emergency in nature. A parent is required to be present to sign you out of the Summit at any time other than the final Sunday morning.

...I am expected to attend all scheduled Summit sessions, group discussions, and to cooperate with the Summit staff and counselors by following established procedures and rules of the AWOW World Summit program.

...I will be given a name badge at check-in that must be worn at all Summit-related events, including meals.

...Cell phones, electronic recording equipment and backpacks are not allowed into the Summit sessions held in the Class rooms or Auditorium.

...Residence hall rooms are off-limits to members of the opposite sex. Non-Summit participants are not permitted in my room at any time with the exception of check-in and check-out. Main lobbies and lower level common areas of Summit residence halls may be used for socializing prior to nightly curfew.

...Smoking is not permitted at any time during the Summit week and the campus is a smoke-free environment.

...I am not allowed to use or have in my possession any alcohol or drugs at any time during the Summit week. Violation of this rule will result in my immediate dismissal, with no refund. Prescription medications are to be noted on my health form. Summit nurses will collect and dispense all medications during the Summit.

...I am responsible for safeguarding my own personal items and money.

...Any loss or damage I do to University or non-University property will be my personal financial responsibility.

...When I return home from the Summit, I will, to the best of my ability, share what I have learned at the Summit with my family, school and community. I will encourage others to consider applying for next year's Summit.
